in the acquisition of more than 19 pounds of methamphetamine and 89 illegally possessed firearms, several pharmacists are mainly responsible for filling prescriptions provided to patients by doctors or certified nurse practitioners.